

For Immediate Release:
ROCKSHOW! TO PERFORM AT LAS VEGAS HILTON
Local classic rock band creates and stars in new Las Vegas production show

LAS VEGAS, NV, September 7, 2006: Yellow Brick Road, long-time favorite classic rock band, has created a full-scale production show that captures the excitement of Rock's greatest legends. RockShow! The Ultimate Tribute Concert is one night only - Friday, September 22, at the Las Vegas Hilton Theater, currently home to legendary, Emmy-winning headliner Barry Manilow.

"RockShow! is the culmination of everything we've done to date", says Brody Dolyniuk, founder/frontman for YBR, and RockShow! Producer. "The rock solid score for RockShow! comes from eight years of performing faithful reproductions of our favorite music". YBR bassist and RockShow! Producer David St John: "We created RockShow! to generate the excitement of a real rock concert combined with the over-the-top antics of Rock's most colorful personalities...the 'Concert of the Millennium' meets Saturday Night Live." Dolyniuk: "We feel this could be one of the most ambitious efforts by a cover band. In addition to recreating the music and personas of these great artists, we wrote, staged, produced and funded this show entirely ourselves. We feel it holds up to some of the big-budget productions on the Vegas strip...and it rocks!"

RockShow! musicians perform live, in character and costume, as nine Supergroups (Queen, Aerosmith, Elton John, Led Zeppelin, Ozzy Osbourne, Van Halen, The Rolling Stones, The Who, and Pink Floyd), during a non-stop (and often hilarious) roller coaster ride, backed by state-of-the-art sound, lighting, and special effects. Actor Russ McBride is featured as the comical Roadie, interacting with the audience and "mock stars" live and in "backstage" scenarios via large video screens.

Tickets from $19.95 - $49.95 via the Hilton box office (702) 732-5755 or (800) 222-5361
